Psithurism. Furniture: stash it, throw it, break it, burn it. Chairs: fold, fold, fold, or nurture like a bed, or embrace, the lover, the ceremony, here comes the bells, or minimalism, in style, in life, in ornaments, in plastic surgery, in Botox, inside. Wood to sit on, in the woods where the birds peck the wood, but does the wood in the woods manifest chairs made from wood? Artificial intelligence in the science of household. Lie down, sit down. The duality of the duo, trio or beyond. To face the mirror, to face the post-truth. Recline to see the reality.
